

APF 2019 ANNUAL MEETING: REGISTRATION INSTRUCTIONS

Annual Meeting Registration will be hosted on the American Society for Clinical Pathology (ASCP) website.

1. Visit <https://www.ascp.org/content/learning/ascp-annual-meeting/apf-2019-registration> , click on 'Register Now', then click the APF Registration button at top of the page. You will now see APF registration. Click the 'Register Now' button and you will be asked to log in.

If you are a member of APF and have login credentials for ASCP.org:

2. Log in with your ascp.org user credentials, then complete your meeting registration.

If you are a member of APF but do not have login credentials for ASCP.org:

2. An account on ascp.org has automatically been set up for you. Select 'Forgot your User ID or password?' and enter your Last Name and Email Address as prompted. Be sure to use your primary email address from which you receive APF communications. Temporary login credentials will be emailed to you.

3. Once you receive temporary login info, return to <https://www.ascp.org/content/learning/ascp-annual-meeting/apf-2019-registration> and refer to Step 1 above to register. You should now receive APF member pricing.

If you are not a member of APF and do not have ASCP login credentials:

2. Select 'Create an Account' on the log-in page and set up a new account. Then refer to Step 1 above to complete your registration. You will be presented with non-member registration rates.

To register by phone, contact ASCP Customer Service at 800-267-2727
